Wolves Runners-up in NAIA

Fund Drive Is Set for This Week

"Campus Chest Drive, Chest Expansion, What's Your Size?" is the slogan of the United Fund Drive which starts today and will continue throughout the week. Funds from this annual campus drive will be raised for the World Student Service Fund, Community Chest, Red Cross, Tuberculosis fund, YMCA-YWCA, Japanese Christian University, and the March of Dimes.

Red containers placed around the campus are for student contributions. A variety of items from the faculty will be auctioned off at 7:30 p.m. on Wednesday in Maple hall with the proceeds going to the fund.

A dance with the theme of the slogan will end the drive on Saturday, March 14, at 8 p.m. in Maple hall. One cent per inch of each man's chest and each woman's waist will be the admission charged. The admission will be cut down one cent for each inch of chest over 40 and each inch of waist under 20. Special entertainment will be featured at intermission.

Sponsored by the freshman class under the auspices of the student body, the drive chairman is Gary Barnes, freshman student council representative, with Darlene Knaub and Mary Gordon working on the planning committee with him.

Joanne Kremers, Pat Holman and Bob Jolma are in charge of the faculty auction. Virginia Mc-

Graduate Passes Away

News that Willis Love, OCE graduate, died of cancer March 3, reached the campus last week. Willis attended OCE in 1950. He was very active and a well-known member of the student body. Some of his activities included writing for the student newspaper and serving as chairman of the campus Wesley Foundation. Willis taught school at Rainier. His funeral was held March 6 at the A. J. Rose chapel in Portland.

Pianist To Be Heard Over "OCE Calling"

Virginia Corrie Gant, will present a program of piano numbers on "OCE Calling" over KOAC at 6:15 tonight. Virginia, a transfer from Oregon State college, is minoring in music and is doing supervised teaching in music under Mrs. Florence W. Hutchinson at the Monmouth elementary school. She is taking lessons from Mrs. Denise Murray Redden.

Virginia will play "Spoon River" by Percy Grainger, "Pavane pour une Infante Defunte" (Sleeping Princess) by Maurice Ravel and "Tom Thumb's March" by Octavio Pinto.

Browne and Logan To Head Senior Week-end

Dan Browne and Gloria Logan were chosen as chairmen for the Senior Week-end to be held April 24 and 25. They met last Wednesday and began making a few plans for the event. They are asking all students and faculty members not to plan any activities for that week-end without prior approval from the senior week-end committee.

Library Books Due

All books must be turned in to the rental library by Friday, March 20. Any student who fails to do this will have his final grades withheld.

Virginia Gant and Alice Hardie will accompany the choir as they sing "Waltz from Faust." They bring in a bit of liveliness by singing a group of childhood memory songs. "Of Loveliness to Sing," "Sevansea Town," "Alpine Yodel Polka," followed by the ever-popular "I Wish I Was—" and "At Parting" complete the program.

The members of the Choir, directed by Mrs. Florence W. Hutchinson, are: Sopranos, Lucy Baldwin, Barbara Callaway, Marilyn Christianson, Elaine Irwin, Virginia McCullen, Eloise Scott, Edithanne Simpson, and Pelma Smith; tenors, Dan Heins, Thomas Huebner, Lawrence Miller, John Plank, William Poole, and Charles Saucy; basses, Eugene Blair, James Dawson, Edwin Goodling, Charles Enrick, Harry Jahnke, Kenneth Miller, Roger Rutherford, Donald Seibert, and Gary Stephanson; altos, Ardonnah Elligsen, Marilyn Hall, Myrna Little, Barbara Makinster, Edythe McCarty, Pat McQueen, Marilyn Melquist, Pat Patterson, Lila Rice, Nada Rust, Esther Squires and Sharon Strand.

Sportsmanship Plaque Won for Second Year

A battling, hustling, bustling, never-say-die pack of Wolves gave the hoop fans of the area a few tender morsels for verbal mastication at the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics tournament in Portland. Bob Livingston's crew was first after Portland University as far as wins and losses were concerned, but second to none in the category of sportsmanship and will to win. The Wolfpack dropped the title game to the Pilots 78-70. For their honest efforts they waltzed home with the Sportsmanship Trophy.

'Arena' Play Is A Success with Double Casting

by Bev Jordan

"Years Ago" which was presented in Maple hall on March 4 and 6, proved to be one of our best plays. It was unique in that it had a double cast and that it was given in "arena" style with the cast completely encircled by the audience. This double cast gave a quite different slant to each of the presentations because each actor gave his own interpretation of the character he portrayed. Many who saw both performances stated that it was like seeing two different plays.

Those with leading roles were Muriel Horning and Edie Neilson as Ruth Gordon Jones; Lou Titsworth and Susan Moberg, as mother; and Gary Burch and Frank Maxwell as father.

Others appearing in the cast were Holly Campbell, Rosalie McClintock, Margaret Getty, Peggy Allen, Elmer Sanke, Bud Long, Milford Barnes, John Pizzuti, William Poole, Robert Jolma, Elaine Irwin and Dorothy Walters. The play was directed by George Harding.

The story centers about Ruth and the difficulties she encounters in trying to "embark on a career of acting."

Future Joint Degree Students Visit OCE

Fifty-two students from five colleges who are planning on enrolling in the joint-degree program next fall, visited on campus last Thursday. Most of the group was from Oregon State college. Eight students were from the UofO, one was from Willamette U, two from Cascade college and two from Portland State college.

A special all-day program of tours, conferences, orientation sessions was planned for these students from cooperating colleges. A lunch for them was served in the Monmouth elementary school cafeteria. After lunch a complete tour of the campus was conducted by OCE student guides. Visitors were given an opportunity to meet many of the faculty members and supervisors and to discuss with them any of the questions they had about the program here. Dale Cannon talked with them about student organizations and school activities.

The home town earned the finals berth by up-ending Lewis & Clark, the Northwest Conference champions 73-65 on Tuesday evening to open the classic. Portland U dropped Willamette, runners-up in the NWC, 90-71 in the second game.

It was the second year the OCE Wolves have brought the Sportsmanship plaque home as they have won it each time they have appeared since it was inaugurated in 1950 by the "Beacon," Portland university student paper.

Plagued by lack of height in both contests, the Pack looked anything but the doormat the experts had them doped out as being. Their fight, ball-hawking, and speed were more than the Pioneers could cope with and gave the Pilots a rough time.

Forward Howard Sullivan and guard-captain Bob Bushnell played stellar roles in both contests as did Bill Palmquist. The trio rounded out their OCE hoop play in the Wednesday night clash.

Cast Chosen for Faculty Comedy

Rehearsals of the faculty play "You Can't Take It With You," have started in preparation for the presentation dates of April 16 and 18.

The cast of this three-act comedy was chosen from faculty members of the college and the elementary schools, plus several persons from the office staff. The leading roles are played by Lucille Millsap, John Howard and Yvonne Henery. Geo. Harding is directing, assisted by Dr. Francis Haines.

Keep these presentation dates in mind because you don't want to miss this "screwball" play.

Inter-Faith Council Plans Religious Week

The Inter-Faith Council has been making plans for Religious Emphasis Week. This week will center around a better understanding of the various faiths on our campus. At a recent meeting the group decided to have as a general theme for the week "The Christian in the World Crisis." The tentative plan is to have three speakers on the three types of Christian faith, those based on Catholicism, the fundamentalist view and the liberalist view.

Pre-scheduling Steps Told

Pre-scheduling for Spring quarter will start today, March 9, and end Friday, March 13. Students should make appointments with their advisers in advance in order to plan schedules effectively before the rush of registration.

The suggested procedure is as follows:

1. Students will obtain two copies of the yellow study list and a copy of schedule changes from the Registrar's office.
2. A proposed study schedule will be prepared in duplicate prior to a conference with consellers.
3. Counselor and student will discuss schedule and make any necessary changes. Counselor will initial one copy, return it to student and retain one copy for files.
4. Student will present initialed copy of schedule at Registrar's office and obtain registration materials. Those who have been approved for the teacher education program should present their blue admission card when calling for registration material. These materials will be completed and retained by student until registration day, March 26.

EDITORIAL

FIRST THINGS, FIRST!

There comes a time when, even in the lives of journalists, (who are known for coming through with their product of labor in spite of all obstacles), that there just aren't that many hours in the day. This happens to the writers, editors, managers, and heads of the Lamron, invariably at the end of each term when professors begin talking about term papers and final examinations.

Well, we'll admit it. We have "grade sharks" working on the Lamron. Can't really help it since we're all OCE college students. "First things first," so the saying goes. Have you guessed where that puts the Lamron next week? It'll be one week when the Lamron staff ruins the clean reputation of the journalists.

—J.F.

A JOB WELL DONE

All of us who saw the tournament in Portland, last week, know what a commendable job the OCE basketball team did in their performance. These two games drew a considerable amount of praise from non-partisan spectators. The entire team played a superb game of ball.

The quality of sportsmanship and the caliber of playing has been very high by our basketball team the past few years. We all know the size of our student body is considerably smaller than most of the schools on our schedule, yet the team has turned in a successful season against these schools.

It is about time that some credit is given where the credit is overdue; to our fine coaching staff and to our team that has played with high sportsmanship ideals and with a very strong will to win.

The team has won the "Sportsmanship Award," as we all know, at the NAIA tournament for two consecutive years. Our team deserves a great amount of praise and credit for this.

Rudy Lachenmeier, the sports commentator who presented the trophy to OCE, summed it up especially well when he said, "Congratulations for playing the game the way that it should be played."

Two Student Positions Are Open for Fall Term

Any person who might be interested in acquiring the position of financial secretary of the associated students or manager of the student book store-rental library, beginning fall term, 1953, should contact Eugene Blair in the near future.

The financial secretary position is an appointive student body office, the person being elected by a popular vote of the student council members. Persons interested in the position should have a working knowledge of simplified bookkeeping practices.

The book store-rental library managership would provide regular campus employment throughout the year, the person being paid on the regular student payroll the same as for all other student employment.

Persons interested in either position should be quite certain that they will be attending OCE all three terms of the academic year, 1953-54. Lower classmen may apply for these positions as well as upper classmen.

Eugene Blair will be retiring from both positions at the end of the spring quarter after serving as financial secretary for the past two years and manager of the book store for one year.

SSQT Applications Must Be In Today

Applications for the April 23, Selective Service Qualification Test to be taken by eligible college students must be postmarked not later than midnight tonight, March 9. This will be the last test given during the current academic year. Application blanks and information may be obtained by students from the nearest local board.

To be eligible to take the Selective Service Qualification Test, an applicant, on the testing date must be a selective service registrant who intends to request deferment as a student; must be satisfactorily pursuing a full-time college course, undergraduate or graduate, leading to a degree; and must not previously have taken the test.

The present criteria for consideration of deferment depends upon a score of 70 or better, or class standing among the male members in the upper half of the freshman class, upper two-thirds of the sophomore class, or upper three-fourths of the junior class. Seniors accepted for admission to a graduate school must make a score of 75 or better or be among the upper half of the male members of their class.

Did You Know That

Mr. Charles Ireland, valley editor of the Oregon Statesman, is planning to write an article about the Oregon College of Education which will appear in the Statesman sometime soon. Mr. Ireland was on campus last Thursday gathering information about the college. His approach in this article will be from the standpoint of a college that is a community and commuter's college.

A meeting to acquaint future teachers with the Association for Childhood Education was held in the faculty lounge on Thursday, March 5, at 3 p.m. Dr. Wagner, director of the local elementary school, spoke to the group. Mrs. Patterson, supervisor, told about the advantages of using a felt board in teaching. Refreshments were served. Miss Kaufman, who is president of ACEI of Polk county, poured the tea.

Applications for state scholarships for the school year 1953-54 should be filed in the registrar's office not later than April 1. Application forms are now available from the registrar.

Renewal of PTA scholarships will be made on all application forms which will soon be available to each PTA scholarship student. The deadline for submission of the requests is April 15.

A banquet was held by the Delta chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma, national educational honorary for women teachers who have done successful service in the field, last Friday evening at Todd hall. All members from Polk, Yamhill, and Marion counties were invited. Nearly 40 people attended. The speaker was Mrs. Paul Geddes, wife of Senator Geddes of Roseburg. She spoke on "The Life of a Senator's Wife."

A revision of the rules for women's off-campus living is currently being made by representatives of each house. A meeting was held last Tuesday and another is scheduled for this week. An attempt is being made to bring these rules up-to-date with the present-day college standards for off-campus living for women.

There's good news in the field of polio. Thanks to the support of the March of Dimes by the American people, scientists are now planning the first field trials of a polio vaccine, and manufacturers are producing the blood fraction, gamma globulin, for limited use as a temporary preventive of paralysis.

Tuesday, March 10 at 7:30 p.m., Mrs. Dorothy Wolfe will show her slides on Alaska in the Todd hall living room to all students wishing to attend. Mrs. Wolfe has lived and taught school for many years in Alaska. For the past two terms she has been a student here, but will be leaving our campus spring term.

Members of Mr. Post's physical education classes also left on a field trip on Saturday, March 7. They went to the reduction plant of the Aluminum Company of America at Vancouver, Wash., and to the Crown Zellerbach Corporation's paper plant at West Linn.

Mrs. McBee's primary education classes went on an all-day field trip last Friday. They visited the public schools of Corvallis.

There will be no Lamron on Monday, March 16. The staff will be studying for their finals.

The new gold bell trophy brought to OCE by Portland State college is still without a mounting. A hunt for an appropriate one is going to be made in the Portland trophy stores.

Dr. Haines Writes Article on Indians

Dr. Francis Haines has written an article, "Don't Stereotype Our Indians," in the February edition of the Oregon Education Journal. In this article he states that the Indian tribes each had a distinct cultural pattern and that children should not be taught that all Indians wear war bonnets, live in teepees and paddle in birch-bark canoes. They should be taught the truth about the Indian's culture.

Mrs. Gertrude Patterson has prepared an article about a recent unit she has conducted with her second graders on the local Calapooian Indians. This is planned as a follow-up to Dr. Haines' article and will appear in the Oregon Education Journal with a series of pictures. The children also studied about the lives of the pioneers in our own Monmouth locality.

Reports Required

Students who have been placed in teaching positions but who have not reported the fact to the placement office, should do so as soon as possible. All such information should be on file by the end of this week before the annual Oregon Education Convention in Portland.

NOTICE!

All students who will be off-campus Spring quarter and who will be graduating from either the three or four-year course at the close of the spring quarter are requested to notify the president's office whether or not they wish to participate in the commencement exercises. It is very important that we have this information before the close of the winter quarter.

Ivan Parkers Have Son

A 10 pound baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Parker in the Woodburn hospital on March 6. The lad, named Robert John, has two brothers and three sisters. Mr. Parker, who was Lamron adviser last year in now the principal at the WyEast High School near Hood River.

Arnold Arms' News

by Bud Long

Arnold Arms has a protege actor. A cat that we have is named after the cat in the campus play, "Years Ago." A regular resident of Arnold Arms, the cat's name is "Punk." Because of the difficulty of keeping the cat still, Punk did not play the part in the play, although he was considered.

'Pack Shows 'Em In NAIA Tussles

A characteristic spurt in the final five minutes, pulled the Wolves from a 58-63 deficit and gave them a 73-65 triumph in the opening round of the NAIA tournament in Portland Tuesday evening.

The home town crew had battled the Northwest Conference title holders on even terms until they faded just prior to the five-minute mark.

Frank Grove led the late game surge with three all-important buckets, his total output for the evening. Bob Bushnell and Chuck Pinion, who gave the opposing guards more worries than a lop-sided basketball, set the harrassing pace that ruined the flabbergasted Pioneers.

The two teams were deadlocked at 18-all at the first stop. The Palatine Hill Phenoms then pulled to a narrow 40-39 halftime edge. The battle was waged in sea-saw fashion during the third stanza with the Monmouth crew checking in a 55-53 margin.

Steady Bobby Frantz led all scorers with 23 points. Johnny Feuz, the elongated snow-shoe kid, sparked the Pioneers with 21.

Portland university entered the finals with the Wolves as they thumped the Willamette Bearcats 90-71.

The lanky, classy Portland U Pilots were just a little too much for the determined Wolves in the title clash. If sheer determination and spirit had been the deciding factor, the Monmouth men would have boasted the 78-70 edge rather than the Pilots.

Torson's Terrors, with their distinct height advantage, did the necessary damage in jumping to a 19-9 first period lead. From then on the Wolves out-played their favored foe but couldn't reach as high.

An important factor in moulding the outcome of the contest was the injury of Bobby Frantz, commander of the Wolfpack point battalion. Bobby sustained an injury in the third chapter that forced him to leave the game on a stretcher. The injury was a painful pulled muscle.

Cocky Ken Strode just couldn't miss from the key and wound-up with the game's high of 19 tallies. Howard Sullivan, playing his last game for the Crimson and Grey, bagged 16.

Portland U, winners for the fifth consecutive year, will journey back to Kansas City for the national tournament which runs March 9 through 14. The Pilots finished 4th in a field of 32 at last year's classic.

Blivets, Independence, Mammy's and Howell House will battle for the intramural hoop title this week, with first round games starting tonight. The league champions Blivets will meet the fourth place Howell House crew in the 8 p.m. opener and the runner-up Independents squad will go against Mammy's, the third place finishers, at 9 o'clock. The losers will vie at 8 p.m. on Thursday for consolation honors, with the two winners battling at 9 for the 1953 intramural hoop title.

The Blivets were extended hard to complete their season with an unblemished record as they eased by Mammy's 41-25 on Monday evening and then had to go into overtime to edge West House 42-39 on Thursday.

In other action during the week the Independents snared second slot by trouncing Vets' Village 65-26 and Howell House gained the play-offs by dumping Poole's 50-49 in a tussle to decide which was to occupy fourth spot in standings.

ANGELA'S ANTICS

The Oregon College of Education girls basketball team defeated the Portland State girls 46 to 18. The game was played in the old Lincoln high gym in Portland. (Now we know how Swede felt, even if we are midgets.) OCE started off right away by dropping 12 points thru the hoop before Portland State could manage to hit one basket. Excellent ball stealing was OCE's surprise attack. The guards continually stole the ball and kept the Portland State girls in check all through the game.

Forwards Mary Gordon, Pat Holman, Fran Williams, Midge Stevens and Darlene Knaub combined accurate shooting and clever passing to lead the OCE girls to a one-sided victory.

After the game the OCE team and coach, Mrs. Krey, were guests of the Portland State coach for refreshments.

George Fox college girls will invade OCE this Thursday, March 12, for a basketball game. This contest is predicted to be a better game than the two previous ones. All students who would like to watch are encouraged to root the team on.

Sports in Future Or Fantasy??

Time: 1970.
Place: OCE gym.
Game: OCE vs. the College Coeds

The teams are dressed in satin shorts, hose, heels, and an added touch to the feminine hoop stars this year is fur warm-up coats—OCE's are white ermine with a red wolf colorfully decorated on the left lapel. Both teams seem to be accurate on their shots and it looks as if a good game is in the making. After a few warm-up shots, the teams are in the center ready for the jump.

The referee is none other than Dr. Edwina Barrows, the scientist who won fame by discovering how to conquer the atom bomb. She has her microscope studying the species of each team. As Dr. Barrows blows her whistle for the starting of the game, there is a hush over the small crowd of 15,000. The teams are applauding as they come out of their huddles. The toss-up is taken by Roberta Frantz, the cute little curly headed blonde. She makes a quick shot from the center circle.

Ball Players Attention!

Full scale organized baseball practice will start today, Monday, March 9, at 4 p.m. Coach Bob Livingston would like to invite everyone who would like to try out for a spot on the 1953 ball squad to turn out.

Pinion Named 1953-4 Hoop Captain Bobby Frantz Most Valuable Player

CHUCK PINION

Named 1953-4 Hoop Capt. by Mates

BOBBY FRANTZ

Voted MVP Award of Past Season

Chuck Pinion and Bobby Frantz won the accolades of their teammates last week in the balloting for 1953-54 captain and the 1952-53 most valuable player. Pinion, OCE's sparkplug guard, will be next year's basketball captain and Frantz won the team's most valuable award for the season just past.

Charlie, who rounded this season into a play-making guard and a bulwark on defense, has two full years of varsity experience at OCE. He got his first taste of grown-up basketball when he moved up from the junior varsity at the tail end of the 1950 season.

The ballhawking guard missed the 1950-51 season and then finished his first full year on the OCE hoop squad as its top scorer in 1952. He wound up this season in third spot with 270 tallies in 27 games, 44 points less than a year ago for the same number of contests.

Frantz transferred to OCE this past year from Oregon State college, where he was the high scorer for the Rooks in 1950. Bobby is a steady consistent ballplayer and his abilities have earned him lots of praise. He was the team's high scorer this year, amassing 393 points in 27 battles and was an excellent backboard man.

Both fellows will be around to spark the Wolves, come the 1953-54 hoop season.

Tennis Court Reminder

A reminder to all tennis players. Your feet and your tennis courts will last longer if you wear tennis shoes. Remind your friends to wear their tennis shoes on the courts at all times.

Well, it's half time and the spectators are getting their usual refreshments—cocktails, a thick steak and all the trimmings. There's only one thing wrong, Dr. Barrows passes the refreshments out via small aspirin-like pills.

Halftime score reads, OCE 50 and the Coeds 69. The Wolves haven't lost a game this year, so don't leave early or you might miss the game of your lifetime.

Here comes the teams back on the floor. The line-up will be the same as the first quarter. At the forward spot are Harriet Sullivan and Franchot Grove. Center is taken by Roberta Frantz (all her fans call her Robbie), and at the guard posts are Barbara Bushnell and the defensive ace Chinchilla Pinion. The game begins and OCE is gradually gaining on the Coeds. At the end of the third quarter they are only 10 points behind—180 to 170. The OCE girls call time out to freshen their make-up—such a colorful team! Time in and only two minutes remaining. The ball is passed to Harriet Sullivan and just as she is ready to pass a horrifying rip and buzzing sound is heard. All eyes are fixed on Harriet. What could have happened? A run in her stockings! This is the worst thing that could have happened. She's out for the evening, and who will replace her? Coach Rowena Clarence Livingston is really having a time trying to decide. She walks down the row of rocking chairs and passes Sandy McKenzie, Renie Rosenstock, Rhonda Rainsbury, Glenna Miller and fixes her long eyelashes on Toni Lewis and asks her politely if she would please discard her knitting for a few minutes to replace the mortified Harriet. Toni concedes and replaces Harriet. The deciding point of the game was this one because Toni was really on the ball, and made 25 points in two minutes to pull the team in front to win 234 to 218. What a finish! The crowd goes wild—and so do we—who knows, this may not all be a fantastic story, but a true one—1970 holds the far-off mystery.

Any names the same as any persons living or dead was purely coincidental.

Mr. Smith: "Is there anything you can do better than anyone else?"

Mr. Jones: "Yes, sir, read my own writing."

NOTICE!

All girls interested in trying out for the intercollegiate tennis team are invited to meet with Miss Millan on Wednesday, March 11, at 4:45 p.m. Please bring with you a copy of your class schedule for spring term. The meeting will be held in the small lecture room in the PE building.
